

FOIAB3B

Paul, Lennartson Chosen For Key Pentagon Posts

Defense Secretary-designate Robert S. McNamara has announced the selection of two experienced Government executives for key Pentagon posts in the new Administration.

Norman S. Paul, 41, former Economic Cooperation Administration and Foreign Operations Administration official, now with the Central Intelligence Agency, will be McNamara's special assistant for legislative affairs.

Nils A. Lennartson, 45, now public affairs assistant to Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson, will be deputy to the incoming Assistant Defense Secretary for Public Affairs, Arthur Sylvester.

At the same time, the Defense Department said that J. P. Ruina, 37, has been named director of its Advanced Research Projects Agency.